

Opes Advisors Announces Opening of New Pleasanton Branch Office

Managing Director Bob Natcher to Lead Team of Local Mortgage Advisors Serving Clients in the Pleasanton and the East Bay Area

PALO ALTO AND PLEASANTON, CA – June 20, 2012 – Opes Advisors, an innovative residential mortgage bank and wealth management firm, is pleased to announce the opening of its newest branch office in Pleasanton, CA. Under the leadership of Managing Director Bob Natcher, the new office team includes Branch Manager and Mortgage Advisor Gina Cordero, and Mortgage Advisors Angela Aloise, Darlene Crane, Marni Rivera and Lori Smith. The new Pleasanton office offers Opes Advisors’ comprehensive range of mortgage products and services.

“This team of Mortgage Advisors has deep roots in the Pleasanton community. They understand the local market and have built strong relationships with Realtors and business owners, as well as friendships with many of the people who live and work here,” said Bob Natcher, Managing Director of the new branch. “We’re excited to be opening this new branch and offering Opes Advisors innovative mortgage solutions.”

“Bob and his team are some of the most experienced Mortgage Advisors in the industry and they are a perfect fit for Opes Advisors,” said Susan McHan, Opes Advisors CEO and president of the mortgage banking division. “They have gained a stellar reputation for their commitment to providing exceptional service. Their approach to residential lending helps clients understand what they can afford within the context of their complete financial picture. We’re pleased they have joined Opes Advisors in our new Pleasanton office.”
