OPES ADVISORS ANNOUNCES NEW SAN JOSE - WILLOW GLEN BRANCH

Opes Advisors continues its recent growth by opening a new branch in San Jose - Willow Glen. This expansion further enhances our strong position in Silicon Valley.

Kurt Hickam is the Managing Director of the new branch, leading a team of five experienced mortgage professionals. With decades of lending experience, the team has strong relationships with San Jose area Realtors® and home builders. Combining their experience and relationships with the wide range of financing options available from Opes creates additional opportunities to meet the unique needs of home buyers in this diverse area. Kurt and his team are committed to providing a peerless lending experience in San Jose through matching loan programs to the individual needs of clients, attention to detail, timely communication, and using the latest technology to execute transactions efficiently. This client focus, combined with their local marketing expertise and processing capabilities, allow Kurt and his team to deliver a superior level of service resulting in more success and less stress for clients and Realtor® partners. "Closing on time is important to our clients and with our 21 Point Touch and Platinum Purchase systems we have a proven process to deliver. By joining with Opes, we are now uniquely positioned in the market place to provide a far superior loan experience and help our clients make the best financial decisions," said Kurt.

"We have been looking to expand in San Jose and excited about working with Kurt and his team. They have the relationships and experience to continue being leaders. Joining together allows us the opportunity to better serve the San Jose market with our mortgage financing and wealth advisory services, "said Susan McHan, Opes Advisors CEO and President of Opes'

Mortgage Banking division.
