

Opes Advisors Announces John Sutherland Joins its Sonoma Branch

Opes Advisors Opens New Sonoma Branch at 645 1st Street

CUPERTINO, Calif., May 24, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- Opes Advisors, an innovative mortgage lending and wealth management firm serving California, Oregon and Washington, today announced that John Sutherland has joined its Sonoma branch. John brings almost a quarter of a century's experience in real estate to the firm. His addition represents Opes Advisors' ongoing commitment to its presence in Sonoma in particular and to California in general.

Christopher Solle, Managing Director Opes Advisors said, "John is an amazing addition to our growing team. His professional focus on customers, responsible lending and community involvement is a perfect fit with Opes Advisors' fundamental principles. Thanks to John's well-established standing in Sonoma's business community and social life, we're confident that he will be a stellar addition to the team and will help us immensely in broadening our presence in the region."

John Sutherland counts himself lucky to have joined Opes Advisors. "One of the primary advantages of Opes Advisors is that it provides local underwriting and decision-making which basically means we can respond more quickly and accurately to customers' questions," he says. "I firmly believe we have the most unique product offering in the business. And we're nimble enough to provide the exceptional personal service that customers want, yet we're large enough to provide the security and stability they need."

Opes Advisors is pleased to announce it has just opened a new branch office in the heart of downtown Sonoma at 645 1st Street West. John Sutherland is similarly pleased with the new premises. "It's a wonderful new office and proves Opes Advisors' dedication to Sonoma, something I'm particularly thrilled with, as I intend staying in Sonoma for quite some time!"
